

Commerce Public Library

Heritage Room Index

The Commerce Public Library Heritage Room contains materials collected by Library patrons and the Jackson County Historical Society. Newspapers, census records and Revolutionary Pensions can be viewed on a microfilm reader. Books on Georgia and surrounding counties and family surname files and books are available for research. We hope that this index will be helpful to you in your search. We continue to work on transcribing and indexing materials in our collection. If you have further questions about the collection, please call Tina Harris 706-207-6889 / tina313@mindspring.com
